

“Here I Stand”

The 500th Anniversary of the Reformation and Its Relevance to the Adventist Church

September 15 & 16, 2017

Spokane Linwood Church * 6525 N Monroe, Spokane, 99208

SPEAKERS

David Trim, PhD.

Director of the General Conference's Archives, Statistics, and Research Department.

He is also an adjunct professor of Church History and Mission at the S.D.A. Theological Seminary, at Andrews University. His PhD. is in history. He also presents “This Week in Adventist History” on the Hope Channel.

Elder Jim Reinking, M. Div., M.S.P.H.

President of the Adventist Theological Society Northwest Chapter.

After 13 years as an evangelist with the Voice of Prophecy, he continues his ministry as an evangelist and revivalist with the ATS Northwest Chapter. His evangelistic program, “Life Discovery Series,” is shown on 3ABN

WEEKEND PROGRAM

Friday, 7:00pm

What was the Reformation about and Does it still Matter Today?

Dr. David Trim

Sabbath, 9:30am

The Elijah Message, the Man of Sin, and God's Message of Restoration

Elder Jim Reinking

Sabbath, 10:50am

Looking unto Jesus

Dr. David Trim

Sabbath, 2:00pm

The Ecumenical Movement in Light of Prophecy

Elder Jim Reinking

Apocalypse and Eschatology: from the Protestant Reformers, to Puritans, to Adventists

Dr. David Trim

Sabbath, 5:30pm

Revival and Reformation: What does it mean for us today?

Dr. David Trim

Sabbath Fellowship Meal